

1: Private Golf Lessons

subject: Want to improve your golf game fast, [FIRSTNAME]?

Hi,

There are lots of ways to improve your golf game... videos, books, hitting the driving range, watching the pros on TV, tips on the Golf Channel, group classes...

And of course, plenty of practice.

But you have to practice proper technique, or you'll just be "mastering" bad skills.

The absolute most effective way to up your game is to take private lessons, just you and your instructor.

I've been playing golf over 30 years and teaching for 12. I've worked with lots of students and played countless rounds. Because of this I can quickly spot problems with any golfer, and I know how to fix those issues. I can do that faster than you might think, because I've seen it all so many times before.

Here's what one student had to say:

"In my very first lesson with Jay, he showed me a new grip that changed everything. My tee shots used to go all over the place- usually way off to the left or right. By the end of that lesson, 80% of my shots were going straight down the fairway. I didn't think it was possible to get that much better in under an hour, but it happened. And in my solo practice rounds, I'm hitting the ball straight almost every time. I can't wait to see what else Jay teaches me!" - Chris

Think about it- if you can get your swing, stance, and grip nailed down, that's most of the game. You probably won't be playing in the Masters next year, but you'd be amazed how many strokes you can drop off your score when you get the fundamentals down. I've had students who struggled to break 100 start shooting in the 80s, sometimes even lower, in a matter of weeks.

I know price keeps some people from trying lessons, so I'm running a special this week. If you prepay for a package of 3 or more lessons, I'll give you a sizable discount. The more lessons you book, the bigger the discount.

Sign up for a package at this link, then schedule the lessons later at your convenience:

These sessions don't expire, so you can use them whenever you want as long as I'm still teaching.

To get the best bang for your buck, take a lesson, then play a round or two before your next lesson.

The practice between lessons is just as important as the training itself, and you need to be able to play without me there.

I'm selling a small number of these packages, so when they're gone, they're gone. This is the most inexpensive rate you'll ever see from me, so take advantage of this before I sell out.

I teach all my lessons at [COURSE] in [CITY]. There are no greens fees for the lessons! If you bring your clubs and balls, there are no other expenses. I'll even pick you up in a golf cart at your car for your convenience.

Look forward to teaching you in person.

Jay

3: Promo for Photoshop add-on package for photographers

subject: They'll think you shot it in camera!

Hi, [FIRSTNAME]

Get your $50 discount on Flying Fabric while my very limited-time sale is still on:
[LINK]

You get over 375 High-Resolution Photoshop Fabric Files. You can use them in any version of Adobe Photoshop or Elements, even if you're a novice.

You also get step-by-step video tutorials showing you how to use the Fabrics. Many people tell me these are worth more than the package price.

That's because of all the tips you'll pick up that you can apply to other things in Photoshop.

A few more details:

- All files are cut out with transparent backgrounds for easy drag and drop use.
- Includes a variety of sizes, textures, and angles to fit any variable
- Quickly and easily change the Fabric to any color
- Add to indoor, outdoor, or composite images for an epic effect
- Add one Fabric to an image or create a full, dramatic dress

Maybe the best thing is people will think you took all those beautiful shots in camera.

That's how realistic it looks when you use these files the way I teach you in the videos.

This package is a great deal at the regular price of $147, and today you can get it for just $97!

4: Promo for high-end watch subject: Revealed: This exceptional watch has a "secret" identity

Hi, [FIRSTNAME]

You like to look sharp when you go out.

Elegance, luxury, and style are important to you. Just any watch won't do.

You know a watch is for more than telling time. It makes a statement about the man who wears it.

A fine watch can also be a wise investment. Introducing the Omega Seamaster Diver 300M...

This fine timepiece is not merely a watch. It's certified as a master chronometer by the Federal Institute of Metrology (METAS). A watch must pass a gauntlet of 8 tests for quality, durability, and accuracy, and it must pass them twice to become master certified.

Yet the Seamaster has a "secret" identity as a rugged diver's watch that's water resistant to 1000 feet. Like you, it can handle a lot of pressure.

When people see this sophisticated, steel-on-steel beauty, they'll never guess it's so rugged and water resistant, too. Unless you let them in on the secret.

It turns out you don't have to settle for black plastic when you want a watch that can go deep underwater.

It's time to check it out for yourself: [LINK]

Til next time,

Sam
