

Do You Feel Trapped in an Unsatisfying Job?

For most people, their career takes up the majority of their waking hours. Let's face it- unless you were born into wealth, you're probably going to end up working at some type of job for much of your adult life.

That's why it's critically important that what you do for a living is stimulating and fulfilling, not just a pay cheque. Life is too short to spend your days working at a job you don't like.

Do you truly enjoy your current job? Do you feel appreciated and well-compensated for your work?

If your answer is no, don't feel alone.

Do you have a feeling that perhaps you should be in a different line of work?

Does your job seem like just a source of income, not something you enjoy doing?

Have you ever been passed over for a raise or promotion you knew you deserved?

If you're not currently employed, are you worried about how to find a satisfying job?

If any of those questions struck a chord, you've come to the right place, because

Your Career Is Too Important to Leave to Chance

Are you looking to switch careers and need some guidance? Maybe you know you want a change but aren't quite sure what sort of work would be a better fit for you. Or perhaps you want to stay with your current company with a better outcome.

I'm Hans, and I'm here to help. I've seen too many people trapped in unsatisfying jobs or who knew they needed a change. That's what inspired me to become a career coach.

Working with Hans, I have achieved things I could not have done alone. He has helped me to re-assess my values, re-balance my priorities, and clarify my goals, with immediate practical positive results. Hans works with great insight, warmth and humour. I recommend him whole-heartedly.

A Few of the Ways I Can Help You

If any of those questions made you think about how your current situation is not ideal, I can help you turn that around. Here are some things my coaching can do for you:

- Give you clarity about what you really want in life
- Help you see how to make your current job position more fulfilling
- Reveal things about you that you may not be able to see yourself
- Make it easy to decide if changing careers makes sense for you
- Help you generate new ideas and put them in motion
- Guide you towards finding a new employer, working in a new industry, or starting your own business, should you choose to go that route
- Change your perception to help you fall in love with your job again
- Step outside your comfort zone, where real progress is made

This is private coaching that is tailored to your individual needs, not a “one size fits all” programme. As your personal coach I will listen to you without bias or judgement and hold you accountable for your outcomes.

Don't Just Take My Word for It

In a world where anyone can call himself a coach, it's important to choose a skilled coach with a track record of success. Take a look at what some of my students are saying about my coaching:

Hans is an exceptional coach. In just 2 hours, he helped me find answers to guide me through a challenging period I was experiencing at the time. Having reached an unhappy plateau in my business, I am now ready to reboot my business venture. I have found the session invaluable – thank you.

Meeting with Hans was immediately mind opening for me. He enabled me to understand which things in my life I was genuinely unhappy with, which as I discovered was often different to what I had imagined. I have been able to make good choices as a result and I feel more aware and emboldened. Hans's kind, patient and rather joyous support helped me to do what I couldn't manage alone. Thanks Hans

Hans has helped me focus on those parts of my career and workstreams that directly affect the future I would like to envisage. Instead of trying to balance work/ home life with multiple ideas that sit rather nebulously in the back of my mind, he has worked with me to review my values, streamlining my workload to those areas that will truly achieve my goals. I now have an idea of what I would like to achieve and Hans has given me a step by step blueprint to help achieve those goals. It starts with a book and I've started writing it!
